Pennsylvania Dutch Country Day by Day Itinerary

Day 1: A Scenic Start to Your Journey

Your adventure begins as a Globe Treks representative picks you up at your doorstep and welcomes you aboard our deluxe, custom-built motorcoach. Settle into the plush leather seats and enjoy a continental breakfast as we journey through the Blue Ridge Mountains, their autumn foliage ablaze in hues of crimson and gold. Along the way, we'll pause for a delightful lunch at a charming local restaurant in Virginia, where you'll savor regional specialties in a cozy setting that radiates Southern hospitality. By mid-afternoon, we arrive in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, and check into the elegant Hotel Gettysburg, located in the heart of downtown. A historic landmark since 1797, the hotel blends classic charm with modern comforts. Admire its stately brick exterior and period furnishings while relaxing in your beautifully appointed room. Tonight, join your fellow travelers for a lavish welcome feast in the hotel's renowned dining room, where local flavors and camaraderie set the stage for the adventures ahead.

Day 2: Gettysburg and Hotel Hershey – History Comes Alive

After breakfast, we're joined by a private guide for an immersive tour of the Gettysburg National Battlefield, the pivotal site of the Civil War and General Lee's high-water mark. Walk among the rolling hills and historic monuments as our expert shares gripping stories of bravery and sacrifice. The experience culminates at the Gettysburg National Military Park Museum, where vivid exhibits and a dramatic cyclorama bring history to life. For lunch, we return to downtown Gettysburg, where cobblestone streets and historic facades create an enchanting backdrop. Enjoy a meal at a cozy eatery filled with the warmth of small-town charm. In the afternoon, we visit the Eisenhower National Historic Site, the serene farm that was President Dwight D. Eisenhower's retreat. Explore the home and grounds while learning about his remarkable life as a military leader and statesman. Our journey then continues to Hershey, known as "The Sweetest Place on Earth." Unpack for a three-night stay at the magnificent Hotel Hershey, a four-star, four-diamond architectural masterpiece blending Spanish Colonial Revival style with luxurious details. Opened in 1933 by chocolate magnate Milton Hershey, the hotel features grand arched windows, terra cotta tiles, and lush gardens. Relax in your opulent room, enjoy the on-site spa, or stroll the grounds. Dinner tonight is a sumptuous affair at one of the hotel's signature restaurants, where the ambiance and cuisine will delight.

Day 3: Exploring Hershey

Begin your day with a visit to the Hershey Story Museum, where interactive exhibits narrate the inspiring tale of Milton Hershey and the creation of this remarkable town. Next, we head to the Antique Automobile Club of America Museum (AACA), a treasure trove of vintage cars and transportation artifacts that will captivate history buffs and car enthusiasts alike.

After a delicious lunch in downtown Hershey, the afternoon is yours to explore. Indulge in the ultimate chocolate experience at Hershey's Chocolate World, wander the serene Hershey Gardens, or simply relax and enjoy the unparalleled amenities of the Hotel Hershey. This evening, savor a fine dining experience at one of Hershey's acclaimed restaurants, featuring seasonal ingredients and creative dishes that celebrate the region's culinary heritage.

Day 4: Pennsylvania Dutch Country

Today, we journey into the heart of Amish Country, where rolling farmland, horse-drawn buggies, and covered bridges evoke a simpler time. Our first stop is a guided tour of an Amish homestead, offering a glimpse into the unique lifestyle and traditions of this remarkable community.

For lunch, we'll enjoy an authentic Amish meal, where hearty, home-cooked dishes are served family-style. Afterward, enjoy time to explore quaint shops filled with handmade crafts, quilts, and other treasures.

On our return to Hershey, enjoy a leisurely stroll in Hershey Gardens, a 23-acre botanical garden and arboretum, built by Milton Hershey for his wife, Margaret. Enjoy another delicious meal this evening.

Day 5: Farewell to Hershey

After a leisurely breakfast, we bid farewell to Hershey and begin our journey home, traveling once more through the picturesque Blue Ridge Mountains. Reflect on the memories made, from the echoes of history at Gettysburg to the luxuries of the Hotel Hershey. We arrive back at your doorstep in the early evening, concluding a tour filled with history, culture, fall foliage, and the finest hospitality.
