Charms of the Chesapeake Day by Day Itinerary

Day 1 (Oct 13) Williamsburg's Warm

Embrace: As the golden hues of autumn tint the landscape, you begin the day with pick-up at your home and a continental breakfast before boarding our private Globe Treks coach. Enjoy lunch enroute as you glide towards Williamsburg, VA. The Williamsburg Lodge, our sanctuary for the next two nights, is nestled amid the hallowed grounds of historic Williamsburg. The Lodge stands as a testament to the art of blending old-world charm with contemporary luxury. As you step into this magnificent abode, you're welcomed by an ambiance that whispers of centuries past, where every corner resonates with the spirit of Colonial America.

For your first evening, we'll delight in a delicious colonial era meal at the renowned Kings Arms Tavern. In the flicker of candlelight, experience a culinary journey rooted in history, a fitting overture to the week's adventures.

Day 2 (Oct 14) Living History in Colonial

Williamsburg: The morning sun spills over the cobblestone streets of Colonial Williamsburg. A local guide, a custodian of stories, leads you through living history. Blacksmiths mold iron, and artisans craft intricate wares, painting a vivid picture of colonial life. After the guided tour, the day is yours to explore. Lose yourself in the pages of history, perhaps visiting the Governor's Palace or meandering through the charming gardens. Your Globe Treks tour manager is there to help you make the most of the day.

Day 3 (Oct 15) Jamestown, Yorktown, and Coastal Tranquility: Jamestown, the cradle of American settlement, invites you to experience the timeworn remnants of the past. Relax over a waterfront lunch at Yorktown Pub before a visit to Yorktown Battlefield Park, where freedom from Britain was won! The road then weaves towards Cambridge, Maryland where the Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay Resort and Spa awaits. Here, panoramic bay views blend seamlessly with the coastal serenity. As the sun dips below the horizon, the scent of saltwater mingles with the promise of a tranquil evening and a delicious and distinctive dinner, featuring fresh bay seafood at the Hyatt's Water's Edge Grill.

Day 4 (Oct 16) Exploring Maryland's

Eastern Shore: The Hyatt Chesapeake Bay Resort, an embodiment of understated luxury, offers avenues for relaxation. Relax in your hotel today or explore optional excursions to learn the local history of the Eastern Shore where colonial-era architecture tells stories of a bygone era. Delve into rich history and scenic charm with a day spent with a local guide, starting with the quaint town of Cambridge. Explore its historic streets and waterfront before continuing to Easton, a cultural hub where art galleries, boutique shops, and charming streets beckon you to immerse yourselves in the local scene. In Oxford, experience the town's maritime heritage, stroll along the waterfront, and savor the tranquil atmosphere. The journey then leads to St. Michaels, known for its historic district and the iconic Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum. After a morning of exploration, indulge in an exquisite lunch in one of the area's wonderful and historic restaurants with magical views of the water. Alternatively, indulge in spa treatments, play golf or simply savor the great solitude and delightful views of the bay at the Hyatt.

Day 5 (Oct 17) Virginia Beach: Search by boat for the wild ponies of Assateague before an oceanfront night at Virginia Beach - It's an early start this morning for a captivating day, beginning in charming Chincoteague, known for its wild ponies. Join the Assateague Explorer for a pony-watching cruise as we gaze at Assateague Island, where the untamed beauty of these majestic creatures comes to life against the backdrop of maritime landscapes. Following the cruise, relish a delicious lunch in Chincoteague, sampling fresh local flavors that showcase the coastal culinary scene. As the day unfolds, travel to Virginia Beach, where our oceanfront hotel provides a serene escape to the beach. Take a leisurely walk along the sandy beaches, absorbing the salty air and the rhythmic sounds of the waves. The Atlantic Ocean's beauty creates moments of serenity against a stunning sunset. Cap off this memorable day with a satisfying dinner, indulging in coastal cuisine that captures the essence of the region.

Day 6 (Oct 18) Homeward Bound with

Memories to Cherish: As we bid adieu to coastal beauty, the private coach turns homeward, its wheels spinning tales of history and camaraderie. Arriving back in Western NC, the foliage is beginning to come ablaze as you carry home memories brimming with the essence of a remarkable journey.
